Gans, Marshall, Crosby, Kelly Win Office Posts As Charter Of County Becomes Effective

Urban S. Marshall of Piedmont as county engineer to succeed James S. James; Maj. Charles C. Gans of Chambersburg, Pa., as county health director to succeed Dr. Harper Peddicord of Redwood City; William Crosby of Burlingame to succeed Dr. J. C. McGovern as coroner, and Police Judge Stanley Kelly of Burlingame to succeed Ernest Werder of Redwood City as purchasing agent—these were the major appointments made Monday by County Executive Waltr Kllogg and confirmed by the newly-seated board of supervisors.

Kellogg at the same time recommended for retention incumbents T. Clark Rice, county recorder; Harry Jenkins, county treasurer; Ambrose McSweeney, county tax collector, and William Watson Jr., county building inspector.

The board itself appointed Max J. Leonard, incumbent, as county agricultural commissioner; W. C. McLean as county veterinarian; John Garibaldi as sealer of weights and measures; John J. Garland as county milk inspector, and deferred selections on the posts of fire warden and county librarian.

FRANCIS CHAIRMAN

Manuel Francis of Half Moon Bay, longest in point of service on the board, was elected chairman of the newly-seated board. He was nominated by Supervisor Albert Witt, Colma, and second of Supervisor John Poole, Redwood City, and was the unanimous choice of the four voting members.

Francis pleaded for harmony and co-operation and pledged fairness in all matters coming before the board.

Executive Kellogg's first nomination was that of Major Gans to succeed Dr. Peddicord.

Mrs. Ella Chase of Lomita Park Dr. A. E. O'Neill of Redwood City, and William H. Eddy, Burlingame, raised questions as to the appointment.

POOLE DISSENTS

Kellogg stated that he would not bring up the name of Dr. Peddicord because Major Gans had greater qualifications for the post.

Supervisor Walter High, Burlingame, newly-seated today, expressed to the audience which filled the supervisors' chambers to over-flowing that it had been his desire to appoint a San Mateo county man if one better qualified than Gans could be found.

High then moved for the confirmation of Major Gans. Supervisor Witt seconded the motion. Gans won the post on a 4 to 1 vote, Supervisor Poole casting the only dissenting vote.

Marshall's name was next put forward by Kellogg.

James B. Howell of Atherton, chairman of the county advisory committee, raised a question over Marshall's qualification. The question was whether or not Marshall was a licensed land surveyor in the state. Engineer James said he was not.

Supervisor High asked if James's name was to be proposed to the board, and Kellogg said not.

"The charter gives me the privilege of selecting those with whom I want to work," Kellogg replied.

DID NOT APPLY

Kellogg said that James did not make formal application for the job. James said that Kellogg had told him this was not necessary.

The board asked District Attorney Gilbert Ferrell, who took office at noon, to give his first opinion on the question. Ferrell replied that Kellogg had the right to make the appointments he saw fit.

Supervisor Witt then called for the vote on confirmation of Marshall. Supervisor Fred Beer of San Mateo, who was seated today along with High, seconded the motion. Beer and Poole voted no, while Witt, High and Francis favored the new engineer.

Howell announced that the ouster of Engineer James would be taken to the courts for a test. James declared that he would not turn his keys over to Marshall or Kellogg until a qualified successor had been appointed.

Police Judge Kelly was next proposed for the office of purchasing agent, succeeding Werder. The motion for acceptance was made by Supervisor High, seconded by Supervisor Witt. High, Francis and Witt voted yes, and Poole and Beer no.

Crosby, prominent Burlingame undertaker, was next proposed by Kellogg to succeed Dr. J. C. McGovern of South San Francisco.

Andrew Hynding of South San Francisco spoke in McGovern's favor.

The county undertakers opposed Crosby for appointment, and Frank C. Wyckoff, another Burlingame undertaker, explained that they were opposed to the coroner being an undertaker and competing with them.

Supervisor High moved for confirmation, seconded by Supervisor Witt. Francis joined them, while Beer and Poole voted in opposition.

INCUMBENTS RETURNED

Rice, upon motion of High and Beer; McSweeney, upon motion of Beer and Witt; Jenkins, upon motion of Witt and Beer, and Watson, upon motion of Beer and High, were returned to incumbent offices on unanimous votes.

Leonard for agricultural commissioner won the unanimous vote of the board; McLean as veterinarian was opposed by High; Garibaldi as sealer of weights and measures similarly was opposed by High; Garland was chosen by three votes, Witt (Colma dairyman) preferring not to vote upon the question of milk inspector, and High voicing opposition to him.

Kellogg announced that Roscoe D. Wyatt, director of publicity for San Mateo county, would be ousted January 15 in favor of William McCarty of Burlingame, former secretary to Gov. James Rolph Jr.

Successors to Clara Dills as librarian and Bert Werder as fire warden were deferred for 30 days.

The board of education was confirmed by the board, and the resignation of Robert J. Koshland as director of relief was accepted.

The San Mateo Times was appointed to publish the proceedings of the board, after Supervisor Beer had moved for the appointment of the Burlingame Advance-Star. The Redwood City Tribune has been the official paper for the past year.

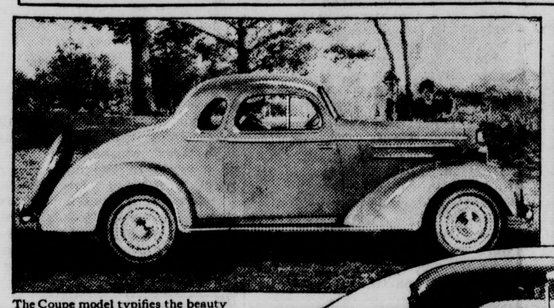
OLD BOARD RETIRES

Dr. C. V. Thompson, retiring board chairman and supervisor for 20 years, now of Pescadero, and Mrs. Rosalie Brown of San Mateo, gave up their seats and welcomed Supervisors High and Beer as their successors.

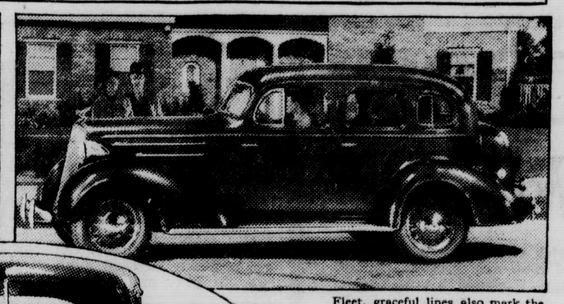
Thompson declared that at times government in San Mateo county has been in a "virtual state of hell," and said he welcomed the rest. He said that the county stood at the cross-roads and that if governmental conditions are not improved, the county will lose its identity to San Francisco.

Mrs. Brown expressed pleasure in welcoming Supervisor Beer.

Chevrolet Announces Two New Lines for 1935

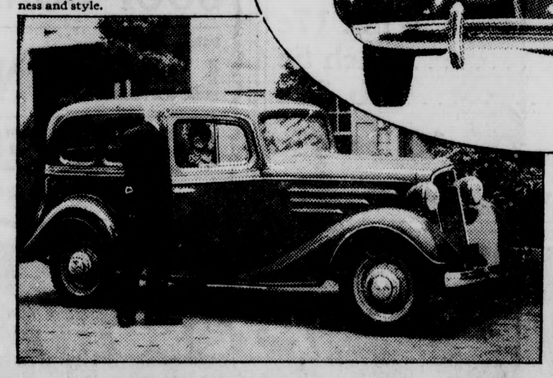


The Coupe model typifies the beauty and style of Chevrolet's New Master De Luxe series for 1935. Improved performance and exceptional economy also characterize these cars.

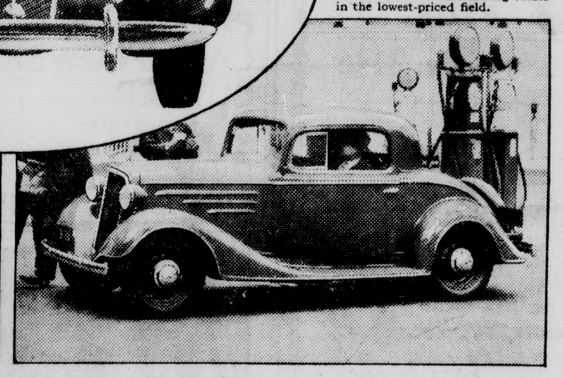


Fleet, graceful lines also mark the New Master De Luxe Sport Sedan. Ample luggage space is provided by the built-in trunk, and a luggage compartment behind the rear seat cushion.

Right: Front view of New Master De Luxe Coupe, showing roominess and graceful lines. Below: The Sedan model in the New Standard series, which, powered by the time-proven Master engine, combines brilliant performance with its smartness and style.



Another attractive model in the New Standard series is the Coupe pictured here. Numerous body and chassis refinements, in conjunction with the Master engine, unite to make these cars outstanding values in the lowest-priced field.



Typical of Chevrolet's two new lines of cars are the models illustrated here. The Master De Luxe series reveals strong emphasis on beauty and style. Mechanically, the Master De Luxe series and the New Standard series have much in common, including the Master engine, in which numerous refinements have been made to enhance performance, durability and economy. As these pictures reveal, the New Master De Luxe departs distinctly from previous Chevrolets in the striking advance which has been made in body design and trim.

CHEVROLET SHOWS NEW SIXES HERE

Master de luxe models, strongly emphasizing beauty and style and standard models, featuring high powered performance with economy, were announced last week by Chevrolet.

Master de luxe body models include sedan, coach, business coupe with luggage compartment, sport coupe with rumble seat, sport sedan and town sedan. In addition to the coach, business coupe, phaeton and sport roadster, which comprised the standard line last year, the 1935 new standard line includes a full sized four-door sedan and a sedan delivery car for light commercial uses.

The 1935 new standard has been given virtually the same performance ability as the master de luxe which, however, departs distinctly from previous Chevrolets in striking advances in design of body and trim. The engines, incorporating many improvements over the 1934 master motor, are of the same size and design in both models, while in the chasis the chief difference is the presence in the master de luxe of Chevrolet enclosed knee-action suspension.

Amount of Fines In Atherton Jumps

Fines exacted in the Atherton municipal court of Judge E. J. Jennings decreased in number by 17 during 1934 over the number levied the previous year, but the amount collected from the fines increased by $87, according to figures released at the city office there today.

During 1934 115 fines aggregating $1,342.50 in cash were collected, while in 1933 $1,255.50 was taken in from 132 fines.

The increase in collections was accounted for by Police Chief Edward Farrell in terms of stricter enforcement of laws against the drunken driver. When repeal of prohibition raised the lid on liquor sales, authorities there opened a drive against intoxicated autoists. An increase in the number of such arrests doesn't mean an increase in the number of people driving while intoxicated, it was pointed out, but does indicate an increase in "cracking down."

FERRELL'S STAFF

District Attorney Ferrell introduced his new staff, Chief Assistant Daniel Sullivan, Deputy Assistant Louis Dematteis, Leona Brasser, chief stenographer, and Eugenia Urban, assistant.

Retiring from office today were District Attorney Edmund Scott, who had not sought re-election, and his assistants, Richard Bell and Harold Anderson.

Claude Fox Calls Judge Swart One of Outstanding Sportsmen

By CLAUDE FOX

As the sun sank to rest over the western hills an Sunday, December 30, the open season for the shooting of wild water fowl, or those species allowed by law to be shot, passed on into history and with its closing there came to every conscientious, broad minded man who loves to hunt, the stern realization that the wild birds of the marshland, particularly in this vicinity, are becoming scarcer as each successive winter rolls around.

This is no idle dream or any fanciful imagination. To some of the younger trigger pullers who have not followed the changing conditions as I have for the past 56 years, it may seem that the assertion made by me in the foregoing paragraph of this article, is without foundation and unwarranted. Still I shall remain firm in my convictions and honestly believe that my opinion will be backed by those hunters still alive who have pursued the webfoots year after year for over half century.

The readers of the article which I am about to write will understand that I am not referring to the conditions concerning the wild duck situation throughout the United States. The circumstances regarding wild water fowl on the Atlantic Seaboard or throughout the Middle West I leave to writers more familiar with those localities than myself. I shall make it a point not to go out of this state, where I have gained what knowledge I think I possess concerning a subject which has been ever dear to me and shall confine myself more particularly to the Bay of San Francisco and this peninsula, where through experience and observation during all these years that have passed, I am enabled to throw some light on conditions as first found by me when I was but a boy, eager as any youngster would be with his first shotgun, and shall follow down through the succeeding years up to the present time and then attempt to delve like a prophet into what the future holds in store.

At this point the readers hereof will please excuse me for digressing from the further narration of the subject of this article to assume a self imposed duty and pay a slight tribute to the memory of a dear friend and associate, your late Superior Judge Franklin Swart, who passed away suddenly Dec. 29 from a heart attack while shooting wild ducks and geese in company with his son, on the Spaulding Ranch near Willows in this state.

Knowing Mr. Swart as I did, like many others, for a period of over 20 years, the news of his sudden demise, after seeing him apparently in perfect health but a few days before, caused a feeling of deep regret and sorrow that naught but time can efface.

He was a man among men. As a jurist he stood pre-eminent, honest, conscientious, just and merciful, as the legal fraternity of this city, county and state can truthfully testify, but to me he was far more than that in his every day life. He was a thorough sportsman, a conservationist of wild life, a man who respected the fish and game laws, as he expected others to do, and whose judgment regarding the conditions in this state concerning the wild ducks and geese, which he loved so well to hunt, was so well founded as to what was right and what was wrong that any objection or argument antagonistic to his views was, as his fellow lawyers would say, not well taken.

Franklin Swart, I am about to bid you farewell with deep, sincere regrets, but with the full knowledge that no marble slab is necessary to mark your last resting place, for in memory, your many friends and associates will never forget your manly qualities and devotion to what you in life believed to be your duty toward your fellow man.

Railroads Foresee Bankruptcy Ahead

WASHINGTON, Jan. 9. (UP)—America's railroads charged the new deal with driving them toward bankrupcy and put squarely up to the administration this question: "What are you going to do about it?"

Harvey Fletcher, counsel for the American Railroad Association, representing 134 of the country's major railways, appeared in final arguments before the Interstate Commerce Commission, on the railways' request for freight rate increases designed to bring them in $177,000,000 per year.

If these increases are not granted, he said, the country's railways this year will have a deficit of more than $200,000,000.

Coroner Handles Administration Of Six Estates

Dr. J. C. McGovern, as public administrator, has been called upon to administer the estates of six people in the six months ending January 1, it was revealed today in his semi-annual report made to superior court here.

They include the following: Frederick Fairfax, valued at $8,099.41; Katherine Young, $226.58; Raymond Troise, value unknown; James D. Murphy, value unknown; James Frazer, $420,534.31, and John Gill, $42,829.29.

All of the estates are as yet in process of administration, according to the report.

PEP UP APPETITE WITH PLAIN FOODS

Have you one of those "even is it's good. I wouldn't like it" attitudes toward food?

The answer, of course, is too many rich foods.

And when that happens, according to Julia Lee Wright, director of the Homemakers' Bureau of Safeway Stores, it's time fore the old-fashioned, simple foods. Split-peas, lentils, beans and rice become the order.

"Besides being good cookery," says Mrs. Wright, in a national magaine article, "these simple foods are also sound economy. Rice, in particular, is one of the few foods now selling below its price at this time last year."

SPAN WORK WAITS RECOMMENDATIONS

Until bay district cities determine what policy they want to pursue in regards to the granting of franchises to a carrier over the new bay bridge, engineering work on the interurban railway studies will be stopped. This is the order of Earl Lee Kelly, state director of public works. It came yesterday following a conference with Chief Engineer C. H. Purcell.

"No men will be laid off, as other work awaits them," Kelly added. "The preliminary engineering studies on both bus and interurban lines have been completed and reports made and published."

A meeting of bay region city attorneys was expected to be called today for Thursday by City Attorney John J. O'Toole of San Francisco. At Governor Merriam's suggestion, the legal experts will try to draft an ideal proposed contract for submission to the state toll bridge authority, which will attempt to negotiate it with the Southern Pacific and Key System.

Bridge attorneys will assist the city lawyers draft the document, in which it is hoped to incorporate the previously expressed views of bay region boards of supervisors, city councils and other civic groups.

Purcell also announced it has been definitely decided the bridge will be painted a blue-black, that color having been found the most durable and having the best visibility, particularly with respect to the hazard of airplanes running afoul bridge cables.

Sullivan nad Louis Dematteis, on Monday officially moved into their quarters and took over the county's legal business.

Assisting the new officials in their work will be Miss Leona Blasser of Daly City and Miss Eugenia Urban of Redwood City as stenographers.

District Attorney Ferrell's first official duty was to sit with the new board of supervisors at their noon meeting. Dematteis' first duty as criminal deputy was expected to be the issuing of a complaint charging attempted arson against Tony Fodera, La Honda innkeeper.

As the new officials moved in, former District Attorney Edmund Scott, his aides, Richard Bell and Harold F. Anderson, and their stenographers, Miss Marjorie Young and Mrs. Madge King, relinquished their positions.

Scott is opening his own law offices in the San Mateo County Building and Loan Building on Broadway. In the same suite of offices, but for themselves, Bell and Anderson will also conduct a law business.

FINAL TRIBUTE PAID TURNBULL

San Mateo Official, Donor of School Award, Buried

SAN MATEO, Jan. 7.—With city flags at half mast and with schools and many business houses closed, final tribute was paid William F. Turnbull, former city officer, veteran school official and pioneer civic leader, when funeral services were held here at 2 o'clock this afternoon from the chapel of the George W. Sneider Company.

Turnbull, who was 87, died late Friday.

He had been a member of the school board here since 1914. In 1922 the new grammar school was named Turnbull school in respect to his work. A few years later he established the Turnbull scholarship award for graduates of the school. It has a principal of more than $30,000 and is believed to be the only scholarship in America for grammar school students.

Turnbull also installed playground equipment at the school and landscaped the grounds, at a cost of about $2400. In 1928 he purchased the site of the new Park school and gave it to the district. Approximately $40,000 had been given by Turnbull to schools of this city, friends estimated.

He served as city treasurer from 1916 to 1920. He was president of the San Mateo Building & Loan Association for 12 years and served also as director of the National Bank of San Mateo.

He was a Mason and an Elk.

Chocolate Peppermint Cake

2 cups sifted Swans Down Cake Flour
1 teaspoon soda.
½ teaspoon Morton's salt.
1/3 cup Golden State butter or other shortening.
1¼ cups sugar
1 egg, unbeaten
3 squares Baker's Unsweetened Chocolate melted.
½ cup thick sour cream
¾ cup milk
1 teaspoon Schilling's vanilla.

For colored illustration see Ladies Journal, Page 37; February 1935

DIRECTIONS

Sift flour once, measure, add soda and salt, and sift together three times. Cream butter thoroughly, add sugar gradually, and cream together well. Add egg and beat very thoroughly; then chocolate and blend. Add about ¼ of flour and beat well; then add sour cream and beat thoroughly. Add remaining flour, alternately with milk, beating well after each addition. Add vanilla. Turn into two greased 9-inch layer pans and bake in moderate oven (350 F) 30 minutes, or until done. Spread Peppermint Frosting between layers and on top and sides of cake. Decorate with a 1-inch border of chocolate flakes. Double recipe for three 10-inch layers. (All measurements are level.)

Peppermint Frosting

Prepare Seven Minute Frosting (see recipe in this issue of "Broadcaster") adding red coloring to hot frosting to give a delicate shell-pink tint. Just a tiny speck of color on the end of a knife (or a few drops of liquid coloring) is enough. Remove from fire, flavor with oil of peppermint (about 10 drops), and beat until thick enough to spread. Spread on cake. While frosting is still soft, but cold, sprinkle chocolate flakes around top of cake to form 1-inch border. For chocolate flakes, scrape Baker's Unsweetened Chocolate with a sharp knife; hold knife at right angles to chocolate and scrape with a downward motion.

Utility Seeks To Discourage City Purchase

Efforts to discourage Redwood City's attempts to acquire the electrical distribution system of the Pacific Gas and Electric Company were unsuccessfully Made at the city council Monday night by I. B. Adams, division manager of the P. G. and E.

Adams' efforts were the second in 24 hours, it was learned, for Paul M. Downing, vice president and general manager of the P. G. and E., had met with members of the city council at an "informal gathering" on Sunday to permit the company to present its case.

Councilman Paul McCarthy brought the fact to light that the meeting had been held and asked that the information be spread upon the minutes.

Adams specifically sought to have the city council postpone the introduction of an ordinance which calls upon the state railroad commission to fix a value on the electrical distribution system of the company here.

This valuation, once fixed, would be used as the basis for working out a plan for submitting the acquisition of the utility to the citizens for their vote.

TRIO SUPPORTS ADAMS

Supporting Adams' efforts were Councilmen Evans Fletcher, James Eva and Louis Christensen.

Against Adams and favoring the acquisition were Mayor Charles G. Lambert and Councilmen Paul McCarthy, George McNulty and Robert Jones.

McCarthy, who introduced the ordinance, said that the primary function of the city council is to find new sources of revenue to be applied to the public debt so that taxes of the city could be substantially reduced.

He declared the electrical utility was a profitable undertaking and said that studies indicated that Redwood City could immediately reduce the rates 10 per cent and could ultimately apply the estimated $50,000 annual profits to tax reduction once the cost of acquiring the system had been wiped out.

Adams in his arguments against taking over the system said that the tendency now was for downward revision of electric rates.

The division manager and an engineer of the company disputed congressional records showing profitable operation of municipal electric systems.

RELIEF OFFICE IS DEMANDED FROM COUNTY

Menlo Park Red Cross Declares Jobless Neglected

Menlo Park's chapter of the American Red Cross Tuesday urged the city council to take immediate action to secure an unemployment relief office for the community.

"The needy people of Menlo Park are not receiving proper attention," the council was informed in a communication read by Mrs. Dora Devol, head of the Red Cross chapter, "and therefore we are asking your assistance in organizing our own unemployment relief office."

Upon motion of Councilman Irving Dunn, the council voted to refer the communication to the proper county authorities, together with a request that a Menlo Park relief office be established promptly.

LOCAL MAN URGED

The Red Cross chapter urrged the appointment of a local man to head the proposed local office, and suggested Jean Hoss, secretary of the Business Asssociation and former municipal court judge, as the man best fitted for the place.

"Cases referred to Redwood City by the chapter of the American Red Cross in Menlo Park have either been refused assistance or treated so unkindly that we believe some action should be taken," the Red Cross letter read.

Last night's half-hour meeting, the shortest ever held by the council since its installation last April, was marked by a reading of the quarterly report of the police department for October, November and December.

Three deaths in traffic accidents occurred during that period, one caused by a collision between a truck and a Southern Pacific train at a blind crossing in Menlo Park and the other two by a collision between a motorcycle and a pedestrian. The police received 92 complaints during that period Eleven accidents were reported. Seven persons were injured. Six arrests were made for petty theft and eight for drunkenness. One drunk driver was arrested.

FOUR FIRMS QUIT

The police department, which collects business licenses, reported that four businesses located inside the city had discontinued operations during the past quarter. Seven located outside but doing business within the city also stopped. Seventeen permits for new business "outside" were granted and one new permit for "inside." The report was submitted by Henry Carroll, police commissioner and acting chief.

A report for the quarter submitted by Mrs. Fannie Kurtz, clerk of the municipal court, showed that 179 traffic cases had been handled in Judge D. E. Sullivan's court in the past three months. Traffic fines paid totaled $554.50, that sum going into the street improvement fund. Fines for disorderly conduct for the same period totaled $17, the money going into the general fund.

Officer Foster Andrews led in the number of traffic arrests made. His total was 158. Officers Thomas Kearney, Frank Roach and John Heltzel made 8, 2 and 1 arrests respectively.

MILK LAW URGED

J. J. Garland, county milk inspector, submitted an amendment to the city's milk ordinance with the request that the council make the change. The amendment would apply to Menlo Park the new county rule which prevents dairies in San Francisco and Santa Clara counties from selling milk within San Mateo county. The new rules state that milk sold in San Mateo county must be pasteurized within that county.

The proposed amendment was tabled for further study.

Mr. and Mrs. J. William Ryan, city treasurer and deputy treasurer respectively, were granted a brief leave of absence for a time later in the month. They will be out of the state for two days.

A resolution mailed to the council by "The Constitutional Rights Association" of San Francisco, providing for formation of a bay area utility district including San Francisco, San Mateo, Marin and Alameda counties to handle certain transportation facilities in connection with the new bay bridge was tabled by the council. James O'Keefe Jr., city attorney, was instructed to obtain further information regarding the association and the resolution.

CITY ORDERS 50-50 MIX OF HETCHY, WELL WATER

Citizen Poll Favors Unmixed Supply, Tally Shows

Defeating a motion proposing distribution in Redwood City of 100 per cent Hetch Hetchy water, the city council Monday night decided to proceed with a plan to provide a 50-50 mixture of the San Francisco supply and local well water.

This proposal—No. 2 of three plans submitted to the water users in a postcard referendum—was recorded as the second choice of those who cast ballots.

Pure Hetch Hetchy was the first choice of 534 voters, with 357 favoring the 50-50 mixture and 371 favoring maintenance of the present supply and rates.

The majority of the city council felt that none of the three propositions had secured a sufficiently clear-cut vote to indicate the wishes of the water users. Of 2,900 vallots sent out, only 1262 were returned to the city hall.

The 534 votes cast for pure Hetch Hetchy was 42 per cent of the vote cast and represented about one-fifth of the water consumers.

City Manager E. A. Rolison and City Engineer C. L. Dimmitt joined in a recommendation to the city council that the 50-50 mixture be provided.

They stated their belief that "the quality of this supply will be of sufficient improvement as to meet with the general satisfaction of the public."

Continued use of part of the well supply was urged to prevent abandonment of the production portion of the present system which has an appraised value of $95,654.

STAND-BY SOURCE

The use of the existing plant for furnishing a partial supply will provide a stand-by source in case of a shutdown of the San Francisco transmission line.

The 50-50 mixture, the engineers said, would provide "a water of uniform character and of an improved quality" which could be sold to Redwood City consumers at substantially lower rates than would be possible under the pure Hetch Hetchy plan.

Based on an annual use of 42,000,000 cubic feet, the cost of the supply would be $30,000 less per year than under plan No. 1, it was stated.

MERRILL HEARD

George A. Merrill, one-time mayor, urged the 50-50 mixture in a talk detailing the value of retaining part of the well supply. He said that pure mountain water was excellent for washing clothes or dishes and for manufacturing plants, but was not so good from the health standpoint.

Merrill said that the retention of the water in the ground instead of in reservoirs and its quick use after pumping from wells resulted in retention of the radium emanations which are beneficial in checking cancer; preserved the iodine content which is valuable in checking goiter, and retained the copper as a germicidal in destroying bacillus.

The speaker saw benefits in not pumping wells too hard because this destroyed the hydrostatic pressure and allowed seepage of salt water, he said.

Arguments in favor of 100 per cent Hetch Hetchy were made by W. L. Meussdorffer, Julius Smith and Mrs. Neenah Lesseman, after which Councilman Evans Fletcher put the motion, Councilman James Eva seconding, that the plan be adopted.

Councilman Louis Christensen joined them in favoring the plan, while Mayor Charles Lambert and Councilmen Paul McCarthy, George McNulty and Robert Jones voted against it.

Councilman McCarthy then moved that the 50-50 mixture be adopted. The motion was seconded by Councilman Jones and carried on a 4 to 3 roll call.

Engineer Dimmitt was instructed to secure bids on the construction of a $20,000 pipeline to carry the well water to the city reservoirs for mixing with Hetch Hetchy, and for a $7,500 line connecting two city reservoirs.

An estimated saving of $30,000 between the prices paid by the consumers under plans Nos. 1 and 2 will pay for the pipeline, the engineers reported. Funds for the pipeline will be taken from the city water department surplus.

Double Burglary Nets Intruder Large Haul

SAN MATEO, Jan. 10.—Ransacking a home and adjoining store, burglars stole two suits, a trumpet, three watches, 18 shirts, four pairs of corduroy pants and $4 in cash from T. Takohashi, whose store is at 212 South Claremont street here.

Takohashi and his family were asleep and did not hear the burglar, who secured entrance to the place by prying open the rear door.

Landini Loses Post, McGrath Retains Others

No Changes in Staff At County Jail Contemplated

Sheriff James J. McGrath Monday re-appointed all incumbent constables of San Mateo county with the exception of Constable Silvio A. Landini of Colma, who is too ill to assume a post at this time, and announced no changes in the personnel of his staff of deputies.

The sheriff selected seven constables instead of "at least one" for each township as provided for by the charter, declaring that the work in some districts requires more than one constable.

Funds, however, for the salaries of the two extra constables have not been provided, as the supervisors recently voted salaries for only five officers.

George Krehl, former assistant to Landini, was named to succeed him as constable of the First Township.

Other appointments are:

Second Township, M. F. Boland and Fred Owen.

Third Township, F. B. Grill.

Fourth Township, Walter H. Moore and Fred A. Simmons.

Fifth Township, L. A. Cavalier.

Lawrence Nieri, who has been undersheriff under McGrath during his tenure, was retained in that office and heads the staff of criminal deputies.

McGrath's staff of deputies at the county jail was retained as follows:

Criminal deputies—Lawrence Nieri, undersheriff; Adolph Waldeck and John Simpkin.

Civil deputies—Belton Rhodes, chief; Leland Quinlan, assistant.

Jailers—Timothy O'Rourke, Floyd Glennon.

Bailiffs—Joseph Meeks, Thomas Maloney.

McGrath was re-elected in the August primary over the opposition of John J. Harper, Burlingame police chief, and Edward Farrell, Atherton police chief, who ran as a write-in candidate.

Another .30 Inch Of Rain Is Added As Storm at End

Rain which fell throughout most of the night this morning had added another .30 inch to the season's total here, making it 9.37 inches to date this year.

Last year at this time 7.42 inches of precipitation had been recorded by the city weather bureau at the local firehouse at Jefferson and Myrtle streets.

The storm which has raised the rainfall here 1.41 inches in the past three days was expected to die out today.

A heavy fall of snow ranging from inches to several feet was recorded in the Sierras.

The heaviest rain recorded in this vicinity fell in the Los Gatos foothills, where 2.50 inches were recorded for the 24 hours ending at 5 p. m. yesterday.

Several slides in the mountains of this county were reported as a result of the storm.

State Subpoenas Former Officers For Lamson Trial

SAN JOSE, Jan. 10 (Special to The Tribune).—The Santa Clara county district attorney's office today issued subpoenas for three more witnesses who will be summoned to testify in the second Lamson trial, scheduled to begin Feburary 18.

The subpoenas were served on former Undersheriff Earle Hamilton, former Jailor Howard Buffington, and John Moore, former deputy sheriff. All three men, who were identified with the first Lamson trial, went out of office this month when George W. Lyle took over his duties as sheriff.

Recently the district attorney issued a subpoena for Deloris Roberts Sorenson, former maid in the Lamson cottage. The subpoenas are being issued at this early date to prevent the departure of any important witnesses prior to the opening of the new trial.

O'Sullivan Candidate For Insurance Post

Mike O'Sullivan, vice president of the Sunset Mutual Life Insurance Company, of Los Angeles, is spoken of here as a likely selection for the state insurance commissionership.

Mr. O'Sullivan is declared to be fitted for the office. During his former connection as manager of the San Francisco health and accident office of the Occidental Life he made many friends among insurance men in the bay region, so that his appointment would no doubt be approved by both Northern and Southern Californians.

City Introduces Milk Code of Its Own At Board Meet

Pasteurization of milk within the City of Redwood City regardless of whether or not it has been pasteurized within the County of San Mateo was ordered in a resolution introduced at the city council Monday night.

The ordinance was requested by Francis Britschgi on behalf of the Occidental Dairy, Marsh road, which recently took over a Redwod City creamery and pasteurizing plant, and by M. P. Christensen of the University Creameries Ltd., whose firm will be required to pasteurize in Redwood City instead of Palo Alto under the new county ordinance.

Both milk dealers argued in favor of protecting home industry. It was stated by them that no increase in price for the product will be necessary.

Councilman Evans Fletcher, who introduced the dairymen, said the purpose of the ordinance is to attract the pasteurizing plants of the larger dairies to Redwood City.

Fletcher introduced the ordinance and secured the second from Councilman James Eva. Mayor Charles Lambert and Councilmen George McNulty, Robert Jones and Louis Christensen voted for its introduction.

Councilman Paul McCarthy withheld his vote one way or the other pending the presentation of their case by the larger dairy interests. The matter will come before the council again on Monday, January 21, at 8 o'clock.

James Questions Action of Board In Fund Transfer

An opinion as to the legality of the transfer of $12,500 made by the board of supervisors December 24 to defray costs connected with the widening of Mission street through Daly City was asked of District Attorney Gilbert Ferrell by County Engineer James S. James today.

James asked if the sum can be legally transferred from the special road improvement fund of the county road department if it were not covered in the year's budget; if such a transfer must be taken out of some particular item in the budget, and if so what particular item, and if a similar transfer can legally be made back to the special road improvement fund.

Ferrell said this afternoon he had not had time to render an opinion on the transfer as yet.
